

Choose a career with real impact

Make IT work for you.

Are you looking to become a part of something truly unique? Do you want to share the joys and challenges of delivering IT services and products? Would you like to put your operational and technical expertise to use meeting customers' unique needs? Then you're ready to become an Incentra team member.

Incentra is a rapidly growing global provider of consulting, technology, and outsourcing services. We specialize in combining proven expertise and best-in-class service to help our customers maximize every IT dollar and get the most value out of their investments.

Through our unique combination of consulting, technology, and outsourcing services, we help customers realize the full impact of their IT investments. Whether they use us selectively or comprehensively, we will leverage the full breadth of our experience to help them meet their specific business needs – efficiently and cost-effectively.

Who are we looking to find?

We're looking for motivated people to join our expanding team.

- Experience delivering IT services or selling IT solutions in high-growth environments
- Great listeners and proactive communicators who can create real value for their teams and clients
- The ability to translate clients' business needs into technical specifications
- Team players who can influence those around them – fellow employees, clients, and suppliers – to perform at their best
- Shares our view that IT services should be easy to understand and involve a transparent exchange of value
- Accountable for their own performance and willing to take ownership of the results their team produces
- Passionate dedication to achieving customer satisfaction

We expect great things from our people – and in return we provide an environment that fosters success.
